

Because Every Bride Deserves A Little Serenity

by kristy blackmon

Serenity NAIL SALON & SKIN CARE

You started the planning with stars in your eyes. You spent a small fortune on bridal magazines, tried on a thousand different gowns, and dove headfirst into appointments with florists, bakers, caterers and bands. Your wedding is planned and all the details are covered. Now, you're completely exhausted and need to relax and have a little serenity before the big day. You need a place where you and your bridal party can spend some time together, be pampered and get ready for the most important day of your life, a place with a warm, welcoming atmosphere and friendly professionals.

At least there is a place that can help make that happen. Serenity Nail Salon and Skin Care in Mansfield specializes in large party pampering designed to meet your specific needs. Offering multiple services, Serenity can satisfy even the pickiest of brides. Bring in your entire bridal party for the ultimate in day of beauty and relaxation, and leave the details to the Serenity staff. Their focus is on making brides feel nurtured, calm and beautiful on the big day. Have an indulgent spa pedicure and manicure, treat yourself to one last facial, have an expert apply your wedding day makeup, even have your eyelashes extended! Serenity can provide a much needed massage, airbrush tanning, waxing services and more for you, your bridesmaids, and any other females you may feel need to relax (even your mother in law!). They are equipped with a beautiful kitchen area that can accommodate catered brunches or snacks and are determined that you and your bridal party walk down the aisle with a smile.

So sit back with a glass of wine and enjoy being pampered with your bridal party on or before your wedding day, whatever services are required. Serenity will make sure you get the personal attention every blushing bride deserves. Erase the marks of stress from the last few months, let go of your inner bridezilla, and walk down the aisle the very picture of Serenity.

Serenity Nail Salon and Skin Care

1219 E. Debbie Lane, Ste. 115 • Mansfield, TX 76063 • 817-539-0099 • Call For a Appointment Today